"God, those pants are tight!"

Up in my treehouse
With all my little feelings
I dream of flying
Up in outer space.
Then I fall to earth ... Kerr-

Martin Higginbotham

Spring is the great joy
I laugh as all the trees bud
I love what I am.

Susan

"And this here's my all-male harem!"

"Something's crawling up my leg!"

"She loves me, she loves me not..."

"Hi, cutie!"

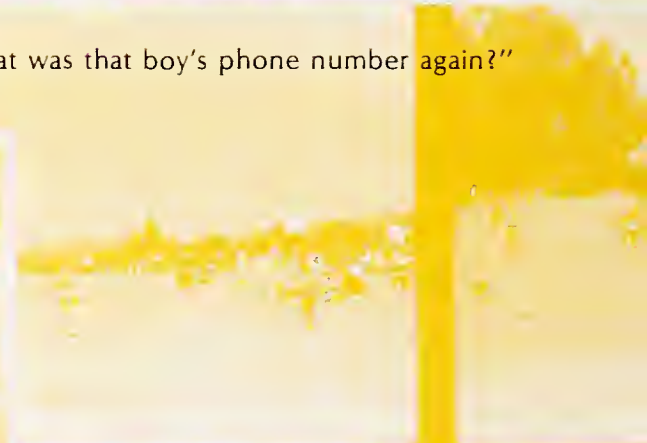

"Now what was that boy's phone number again?"

I open the door,
The crisp air startles my nose,
Fog covers the sky,
The grass glistens with dew,
Monday morning has begun.

Jenny S.

Her face young and sad
From its shelf, the tear escapes
Quiet, and alone.

"What a dish!"

"By George, I think I've got it!"

"Not now, Julian!"

Hey, hey, look at me.
I'm a cute little baby.
I fill the world with my laughter,
And then again with my cries.
But everybody (including you),
Loves dear, sweet me.

June already! Where does the time go? That is exactly how I'll feel when I read this although I am writing to all of you in October. How many of you feel the same? That means you've had a busy, productive year and along the way some fun, I hope. Some of you will be back next year, and I'm glad, but for those of you who will be leaving for the last time, a fond goodbye and good luck.

Beatrice Ferreira
Principal

I feel certain that this yearbook will be one way of preserving some of the best memories you had here at Martin Luther King Junior High School.

I can honestly say that I fully enjoyed working with a great group of students, a great staff, and at a great school.

I would like to wish to all of you the best of luck in the years to come.

Ed N. Randolph
Vice Principal

"How about this pose for Playgirl?"

"Hey baby, lookin' good!"

"I am highly displeased!"

"If you look now, you'll see forty huns on the roof!"

A piece of green pepper
Fell out of the salad bowl,
So what.

"If I just turn this knob, they'll think it was an accident!"

"Who put my dentures in the nitric acid?!"

"I felt that!"

Keep on truckin'

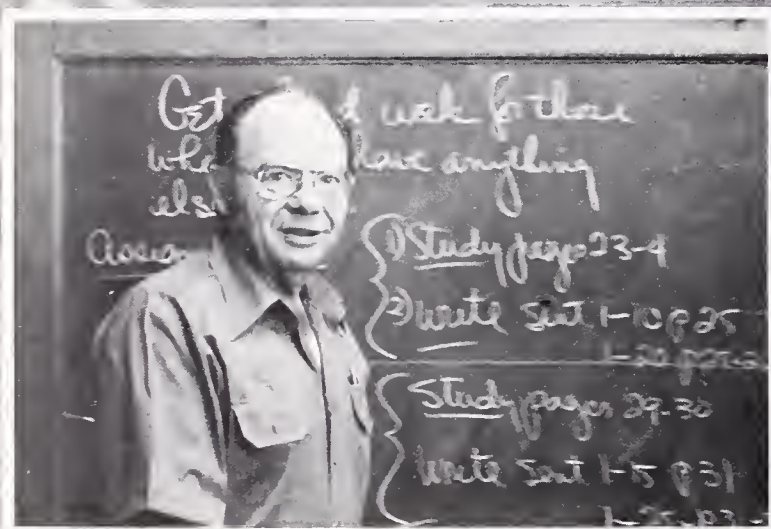

"Dinner at eight? Mahvelous!"

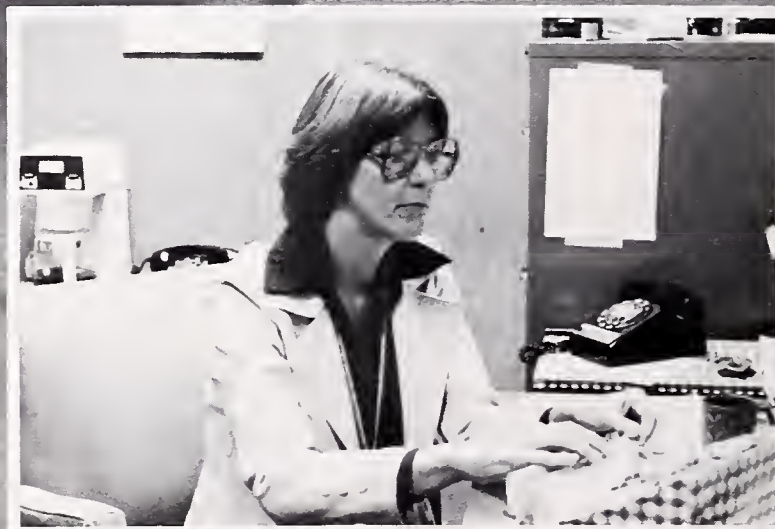

"Can't you stick to your diet for more than one day?!"

Bubblegum
Unwrap it, chew it,

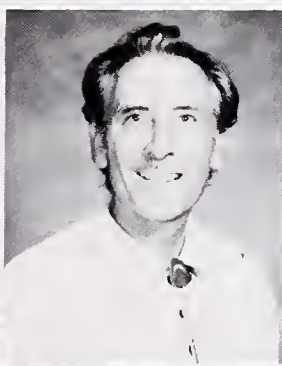

Make a sticky, gooey mess,
Blow it, pop it, gone.

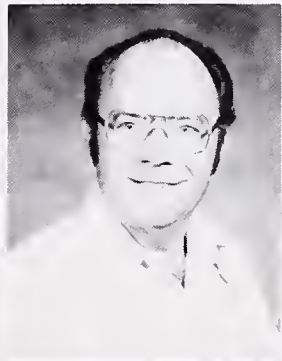

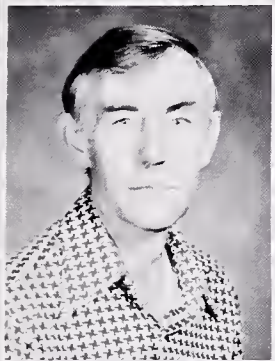

"Look at my Windex shine!"

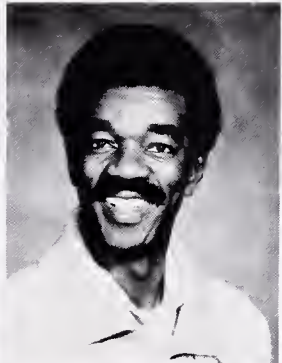

"Now where's that recipe for martinis?!"
